

Refresh My Data - Help

In the unlikely event that you open an item for editing, for example updating your profile and your network fails or the server network fails to complete a command, that item may be locked out from the database preventing further editing or saving. In this case you could use the "Refresh My Data" link to return all your open items to the database and thus enable you to continue editing.

Refresh My Data Now